

These five principles unite and intrinsically keep us together.

Partnership

We act as a competent partner for our external and internal customers.

Respect

We provide information openly and communicate respectfully with each other.

Personal Responsibility

We expect and encourage responsible acting on the basis of agreed goals and defined competencies.

Commitment

We behave in an exemplary and trustful way and fulfill our concluded agreements.

Development

We carry out employee talks regularly to develop professional and personal skills of each individual.

STOPA

